Grade 4 Language Arts | Unit 1 | Day 3

Compare Authors’ Purposes

READ AND LEARN

One writer may inform, another persuade. Identify purposes from actual language. Text A: The town opened a reading room on Tuesday and recorded 38 visitors. Text B: Every neighborhood should have a reading room because public access matters.

DAILY PRACTICE

1. What event does Text A report?

2. What is Text B advocating?

3. Which text uses a measurable count?

4. Write one neutral sentence comparing purposes.
