AHAVA HOME LEARNING ACADEMY

Grade 7 Language Arts | Unit 1 | Day 4

Correlation and Causation

READ AND LEARN

If attendance increases after a new policy, the timing is not proof the policy caused the change. Other influences may include weather, transportation or staffing.

DAILY PRACTICE

1. Define correlation.

2. Define causal claim.

3. Name one confounder.

4. What type of evidence helps test a causal hypothesis?