Grade 3 Scripture Chapter 3

TEACHING NOTES & ANSWER GUIDE | SEPARATE PARENT EDITION

Use alongside the original student chapter and independent practice. Do not show answer keys before completion. Evaluate explanations, evidence and conventions separately.

Grade 3 Scripture Chapter 3 | Parent and Teacher Guide

Answers and teaching notes for five lessons. Scripture is the authority for claims about what a verse says. Evaluate whether a student reads surrounding verses and distinguishes direct text from inference.

Day 1: Who Is Being Addressed? Deuteronomy 7:1-6

- 1. Moses
- 2. Israel
- 3. Entry into the land and covenant obligations
- 4. 7:6
- 5. Exclusive loyalty to Yahuah in covenant worship and obedience
- 6. Original commands address a particular people and setting
- 7. Accept accurate verse-supported example
- 8. Exact or accurate paraphrase
- 9. Read context, audience, language and related passages
- 10. Must identify Israel, covenant and set-apart worship
- 11. Any clearly labeled uncertain generalization
- 12. Distinguishes direct command in setting from inference

Require a correct verse reference and an explanation consistent with the full passage.

Day 2: Love, Covenant and Obedience: Deuteronomy 7:7-11

GRADE 3 SCRIPTURE CHAPTER 3

- 1. Not Israel’s numerical greatness
- 2. Yahuah’s love and oath
- 3. Keeps covenant and mercy in relation to those who love and keep commands
- 4. People who keep His commandments
- 5. Keep commandments, statutes and judgments
- 6. Love and oath are stated; do not invent others
- 7. Accurate text-grounded summary
- 8. Love, covenant, faithfulness or commandments
- 9. Introduces a reason, so omitting it distorts meaning
- 10. Responsible application clearly marked
- 11. The passage itself points to ancestral oath
- 12. Compare love, obedience and teaching in context

Require a correct verse reference and an explanation consistent with the full passage.

Day 3: Remembering in Prosperity: Deuteronomy 8:1-10

- 1. Remember Yahuah’s leading; verse 2
- 2. Forty years
- 3. Manna
- 4. Dependence on what proceeds from Yahuah’s mouth
- 5. Manna, clothes not wearing out, provision
- 6. A good land with resources
- 7. Wilderness experience past; land future relative to speech
- 8. Gives historical and covenant frame
- 9. Must follow text’s sequence
- 10. Exact named event versus fabricated addition

- 11. Bless Yahuah for the good land after eating
- 12. Textual synthesis of remembrance, obedience and blessing

Require a correct verse reference and an explanation consistent with the full passage.

Day 4: Warning Against Forgetting: Deuteronomy 8:11-20

- 1. Do not forget Yahuah and fail to keep commands
- 2. Food, houses, herds, flocks, silver, gold etc.
- 3. Heart becomes lifted up and forgets
- 4. Leading, water, manna and protection in wilderness
- 5. My power and strength gained this wealth
- 6. Remember Yahuah who gives power to obtain wealth
- 7. To establish His covenant/oath
- 8. Accurate four-stage explanation
- 9. Text-grounded summary
- 10. Addresses Israel in a particular covenant setting
- 11. Application distinguished from direct original command
- 12. Both caution against forgetting after abundance

Require a correct verse reference and an explanation consistent with the full passage.

Day 5: Independent Scripture Study and Context Check

- 1. Moses
- 2. Israel
- 3. Love and oath, not large population
- 4. Keep the commandments, statutes and judgments
- 5. Manna

- 6. Life depends on Yahuah’s word, not bread alone
- 7. Do not forget Yahuah
- 8. My own power gained this wealth
- 9. Remember Yahuah
- 10. Check text accuracy, sequence and three real citations
- 11. Clearly labeled application consistent with context
- 12. Careful comparison of love, obedience, remembrance and covenant

Require a correct verse reference and an explanation consistent with the full passage.

Learning Record

Track passage identification, verse-supported answers, sequence, literary and covenant understanding, and careful applications. Mark independently explained, guided or reteach. This is not a full-year Scripture program.