Day 1: Families and Communities

Children may answer orally, type, draw, or print and write. Keep family details private.

1. What is a community?

2. Do all families look alike?

3. Name one helpful task.

4. Can you belong to more than one group?

5. Should you publish private family details?

6. Describe one way to help someone.

Day 2: Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow

Children may answer orally, type, draw, or print and write. Keep family details private.

1. What comes before today?

2. What comes after today?

3. What does past mean?

4. Is next year past or future?

5. What does a timeline show?

6. Give two events in order.

Day 3: Old and New Sources

Children may answer orally, type, draw, or print and write. Keep family details private.

1. Name one source about the past.

2. Does a picture show everything?

3. What is an observation?

4. Ask one question about an old photograph.

5. Should you invent a date?

6. Name a similarity between two objects.

Day 4: Maps and Places Change

Children may answer orally, type, draw, or print and write. Keep family details private.

1. What does a map show?

2. What does a map key explain?

3. Can places change?

4. How could you check a change?

5. Is an imaginary map historical proof?

6. Draw or describe a symbol and explain it.

Day 5: Community Evidence

Children may answer orally, type, draw, or print and write. Keep family details private.

1. What does past mean?

2. Name one source.

3. What is a map key?

4. Is a guess evidence by itself?

5. Can a timeline show order?

6. Name one thing a photo cannot prove.